

NJ MEDICAID

PROVIDER FRAUD TRAINING

December 12, 2018 10:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
N.J. Forensic Science Technology Center Auditorium
1200 Negron Drive, Hamilton, N.J. 08691

Program Description:

Several state agencies -- the Medicaid Fraud Division (MFD) of the State Comptroller's Office, the Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services (DMAHS) in the Department of Human Services, and the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) in the Attorney General's Office -- work together with New Jersey's Managed Care Organizations (MCOs) to identify and recover funds attributable to fraud, waste and abuse in the Medicaid program. This session is designed to give stakeholders, specifically Medicaid providers a better understanding of best practices to prevent, avoid, and detect fraud, waste, and abuse in the Medicaid/Managed Care program.

Goals of This Presentation – To Help Medicaid Providers Understand:

- The structure of the State Medicaid program integrity efforts
- The Medicaid regulatory framework
- Medicaid documentation requirements of providers
- Third Party Liability (TPL) requirements of providers
- Fraud, waste and abuse obligations of providers (reporting and prevention)
- The consequences for non-compliance by providers

Speakers:

Representatives from Aetna, Amerigroup, Horizon NJ Health, UnitedHealthcare, Wellcare and the State agencies listed above.

Registration is limited to 190 attendees.
